

Drawing Prompt

Blooming Thoughts

What's on your mind?

Blooming from the head, draw visual representations of thoughts, feelings, and/or experiences you are having. You can be literal. Thinking about cats? Draw a cat. Experiencing difficult emotions? Perhaps draw a storm cloud. Focusing on beauty and growth? Perhaps draw some flowers. You could take this drawing prompt in whatever direction you want. You don't even need to work with recognizable images. Try abstract shapes, colours, use words. There is no wrong way to utilize this drawing prompt.
